This game is fun, even if a bit simple. I love bullet hell games though and the end of round rush waves are a lot of fun.. Do you like Robotron? Do you like asteroids? Do you like modern interpretations of your favorite games? Lots of fun in with arcade joystick and mouse.. A pretty twin stick shooter, with some unique elements to many of the levels. A remix of quality bits from other games. It's ok, but nothing special.. I can't say I'm an expert at or on SHMUP games, but this is one I can say I had alot of fun with. As opposed to your standard scrolling SHMUP game, this follows cloer to the gameplay style of Geometry wars in facing waves of enemies. The difference here is while Geometry Wars is a endless wave SHMUP game, in Scoregasm each of the levels is with a set wave of enemies and attacks. But the gameplay is fast paced and action heavy, and it's really fun to play. I can't say that I found anything negative about the game and for $5 it's not a bad price. This is a game I'd definitley recommend for anyone looking for some action heavy shooting, and is really fun.

If you'd like to see the gamplay in action, I did a let's play on this game <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3Ehz6VVN7Mk>. Your not going to get 100s of hours of gameplay out of Scoregasm but it has enough levels and variety to keep you challenged for a while. There is quite a bit to unlock and explore.

Gorgeous graphics that pop out of the screen along, classic arcade style audio with some intense close quarter 'bullet hell' gameplay makes this a fun twin-stick shooter. If you can grab it at a good price its worth adding to the collection.

Queue sound byte .. "Ooooh Yeeah!"

If you enjoyed reading this review, please follow True Blue Reviews for more recommendations!. An enjoyable bullet hell experience for people who are horrible at bullet hell games.

It's tons of fun and challenges add tons of replay value. A pretty solid twin stick shooter.

Awesome hardcore music!. Awesome game, loads of level variety and lots of very interesting challenges, excellent difficulty progression, very nice controls.

I Do recommend this game!. Surprisingly, this game is actually really hard. I'm no twin-stick guru, but the real challenge in the game comes from the "Challenges" you can unlock by meeting certain requirements. Even the first Challenge is really quite crazily hard, and that alone does extend the lifetime of the game significantly. This game is probably best buying it only on special, because you might well get bored fast, but if you like twin-stick shooters I do believe it does justify paying full price.. Very fun twin-stick shooter, amongst the best I've played.

The goal is to survive long enough, all while trying to get the best score, hence the name. If you've gotten enough points, you can enter some Frenzy mode, where enemies go all out and further increase your score. Depending on your performance, you unlock paths to new levels, categorized by difficulties.

The big twist in the controls is the Close Range Pulse Attack, an explosion that destroys enemy ships and bullets, which uses your energy bar that can only be replenished by letting it recharge or blasting away enough bullets, absorbing their energy. This explosive attack is of utmost importance in your success, as it can get really tense when enemies start cornering you as you desperately try to manage your energy, and there's an heavy risk/reward factor, which helps boosting your score further. It's a very fun mechanic.

There are 43 levels, all of which are set on 3 lanes, ranging from easy, normal, and hard. Each of them has a Combo Medal to get and a Challenge with a specific objective, like leading an enemy mouse through a maze for cheese. You can also unlock Expert Mode, where enemies leave an explosion of bullets upon death, making things much harder. The game keeps your best scores for each levels, so part of the fun is trying to do even better in each one of those. There's a massive amount of replay value. An issue though is that the online leaderboards doesn't work anymore, and there's little sign that it'll ever come back, but I honestly paid little to no mind to it, and Holy Christ Challenge 2B is one of my worst experiences in my gaming life.

The presentation is stellar. The use of bright colors, reflective surfaces, intricate patterns of flashy bullets (such as big waves-like motions), and a varied array of strange enemies like DNAs and happy faces, gives the game a great art style and an unique identity, it's fun to just look at the action going onscreen. The electronic soundtrack also is fantastic, sporting a variety of styles; the main menu has this ominous feeling to it, and "Tower Of One" feels like \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665s about to go down, but then "The Revenge Theme" has this much more upbeat vibe.

I'm very glad I got the chance to try this game out, it even made me interested in Charlie's Games' other works. It's very fun in short sessions, give it a go.. Scoregasm looks to be fun but I wouldn't know. Tried to create a profile...says I wasn't connected to the internet (I am...) and to try again when I'm connected.

Made it through the How To Play and the first act of level 1, only to be met with EXCEPTION_ACCESS_VIOLATION error and the game terminates. Restarted and the same thing happened again when I started up Level 1.

Did a web search and apparently this is a known issue with JAVA and users of Windows 7 or Vista. I'm running Win7. Be warned if you buy this game and are running one of those two systems.. This is an awesome game, srsly. I love it. Amazing graphics, so many things happening at the same time at screen, 10V10. This game is quintessential to any Twin Stick Shooter collection and like most Twin Stick games its simplistic arcade action is easy to pick up and play, which is also exhibited also in its predecessor game Bullet Candy. Though Scoregasm conveys a more deviously imaginative designed game, it\u2019s anti-complexity proves that a good game doesn\u2019t need complex gameplay, or deeply driven in story, or DX11 graphics with realistic hair to be fun, as this was how \u201ccarcade\u201d games were always meant to be enjoyed. Just 2 sticks and a hail of bullets! I think I just had a Scoregasm!
